HVCU reserves the right to cancel your Internet Banking and/or Mobile Banking privileges, or this Agreement, at any time without prior notice to you.

However, from time to time, some or all Internet Banking or Mobile Banking may not be available due to system maintenance or outage. During such times, you may use Audio Response (MAGIC) (our 24-hour telephone banking service) or visit one of our branches. We are not responsible for the unavailability of Internet Banking or Mobile Banking Services.

Username and Password Protection

You agree to hold your username and password in strict confidence. You are responsible for keeping your username and password secure and for taking all reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorized or fraudulent use. If you believe your username and/or password has been compromised or stolen or that someone may attempt to use your Internet Banking or Mobile Banking Service without your consent, or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, notify us immediately at the phone number or address shown below in section entitled "Contacting HVCU."

We will never contact you (or ask anyone to do so on our behalf) with a request to disclose your password. If you receive such a request (even if they are using our name and logo and appear to be genuine), or you suspect any unauthorized person knows your username or password, please contact us immediately. Additionally, if your computer or other access device is lost or stolen, please contact us immediately. If you fail to do so, you may be liable for unauthorized transactions on your account(s).

Any person whom you permit to use your username and password (an "authorized user") will have access to all of your accounts that are available through Internet Banking and Mobile Banking. An authorized user will have the authority to perform functions through Internet Banking and Mobile Banking, including the ability to transfer funds to and from your savings, checking, money market and loan accounts, enroll in or access Bill Pay Services, make ACH and Wire transfers, view your eStatements, update your personal information, view your account details and summaries and perform other functions that you would be able to perform.

You are fully responsible for all transactions made by you or your authorized user, even if the amount of the transaction exceeds your available funds or the number of transactions exceeds your transaction limit. HVCU shall not be liable if, through no fault of ours, you do not have sufficient funds in your account to cover transfers and/or payments rendering a transaction unable to be processed. If you have insufficient funds in your account and you have opted to receive overdraft protection, HVCU is authorized to use your savings account or the line of credit as overdraft coverage, up to the approved limit, in accordance with the terms and conditions of your Line of Credit Agreement, if applicable.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, HVCU will have no liability to you for unauthorized transactions, payments and transfers made by someone who has used your username and password to access your accounts through Internet Banking or Mobile Banking.

You agree to maintain and advise HVCU promptly of any changes to your contact information. You can update your contact information by editing your profile through Internet Banking or Mobile Banking or by contacting us by phone or the address listed in the "Contacting HVCU" section below. HVCU shall not be responsible for any delay or failure in your receipt of any communication if we send the communication to the last email address you provided to us.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS ONLY APPLICABLE TO BUSINESS ACCOUNTS

Owner's Liability for Transactions

You represent that each individual who has been issued a username and password (each, a "Shared User") has authority from your organization to give instructions within the access level specified by you and associated with that Shared User. You acknowledge and agree that HVCU has full authorization from your organization to rely and act upon instructions identified by such Shared User(s).

When your accounts are linked to one or more usernames, we may act on the oral, written or electronic instructions of any authorized signer regarding those accounts ("Authorized Representative and Signer"). Each Authorized Representative and Signer is liable for all transactions that are made on that account by all Authorized Representative and Signers of the account. It is your responsibility to notify us if an Authorized Representative and Signer should no longer be given access to the account(s) through the Internet Banking and Mobile Banking services. Notices sent to the address of one account owner are binding on all account owners.

You are fully responsible for all transactions made by you or your authorized users, Shared Users and Authorized Representative and Signers, even if the amount of the transaction exceeds your available funds or the number of transactions exceeds your transaction limit. HVCU shall not be liable if, through no fault of ours, you do not have sufficient funds in your account to cover transfers and/or payments rendering a transaction unable to be processed. If you have insufficient funds in your account and you have an approved line of credit, HVCU is authorized to use the line of credit as overdraft coverage, up to the approved limit, in accordance with the terms and conditions of your Line of Credit Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, HVCU will have no liability to you for unauthorized payments and transfers made using a username and password assigned or authorized by you or your authorized individuals that occur before you have promptly notified us of possible unauthorized use and we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on such notice.

Linking Eligible Accounts and Liability

Only eligible accounts can be linked. Only the owner(s) of an account may link accounts. For example, you may link a Business account and a Personal account if you are an owner and Authorized Representative and Signer on both accounts. Linking accounts is at your sole risk, including, but not limited to, the risk of erroneous or fraudulent transactions. Please refer to the applicable Account Agreement for each respective account for other important disclosures regarding your rights and responsibilities. All linked accounts will continue to be subject to the applicable agreements for each such account.

Authorized Representatives and Signers have the ability to self-administer, designate and manage Shared Users. This functionality permits Authorized Representatives and Signers to provide Shared Users access to the Internet Banking services and to specific account(s) within the Internet Banking services. The Authorized Representative and Signer has access to both the accounts of all Business Member(s) of which the Authorized Representative and Signer is associated AND to the personal account(s) of the Authorized Representative and Signer. In addition, the Authorized Representative and Signer has the authority to designate and manage Shared User(s) for both business accounts and personal accounts.

You agree that each of your Authorized Representative and Signers is acting as your agent and on your behalf, is bound by this Agreement and any separate agreement(s) governing the account or service. We may rely and act on the instructions of any such person without our having liability to you.

You acknowledge that there are inherent risks in using the Internet Banking and Mobile Banking services and linking your accounts, which include the potential disclosure of private information to third parties. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY ACCESS, MAINTENANCE, PAYMENTS, TRANSFERS OR OTHER TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING ANY LINKED ACCOUNTS BY SHARED USERS THAT OCCUR BEFORE YOU NOTIFY US OF CHANGES OR POSSIBLE UNAUTHORIZED USE AND WE HAVE HAD REASONABLE OPPORTUNITY TO ACT.

Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, hold harmless and defend HVCU and its affiliates and each of our and their shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, and independent contractors from and against any claims, causes of action, liability, loss, damage or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses) resulting from or arising out of or in connection with (a) your breach of this Agreement, (b) any actions initiated or caused by you and if applicable, your employees or agents, or any other party using authorized usernames, passwords and Business User IDs, (c) our acting in reasonable reliance upon instructions, notices, information and data you provide to us, (d) the act, delay, omission or failure to perform of any third party (including other financial institutions, but excluding any vendor with which we have contracted), or (e) any other loss or damage under this Agreement or otherwise, except as solely caused by our gross negligence or willful misconduct. The foregoing indemnification responsibilities will extend to losses arising from the acts or omissions of any of your employees, Authorized Representative and Signers, Shared Users, authorized users, agents, independent contractors or any other persons acting at your direction or on your behalf.

Security

All individuals who are given a username and password are required to change their password upon initial login to Internet Banking or Mobile Banking, and the password selected will not be communicated to HVCU. The Authorized Representative and Signer must establish and assign a separate business user ID ("Business User ID") for each individual that will be authorized to conduct transactions. Such authorized employees shall enter the username and password, as well as the additional Business User ID when signing on to Internet Banking or Mobile Banking.

You are responsible for ensuring that each user of the accounts takes all reasonable precautions to protect and hold secret all information required to gain access to your accounts through our Internet Banking and Mobile Banking services. Account owners and Authorized Representatives and Signers accept responsibility for periodically changing the account password and for ensuring that delegated employees protect their Business User IDs, usernames, and passwords.

Accounts are protected from access attempts through password guessing. If a password is entered incorrectly three consecutive times, access to Internet Banking and Mobile Banking is locked. In order to re-enable Internet Banking and Mobile Banking, HVCU must be contacted by an Authorized Representative and Signer, as evidenced by the banking resolution, partnership declaration, or other authorization resolution or agreement(s) you have provided to HVCU, to have the password unlocked or to obtain a new temporary password. Usernames, passwords and Business User IDs should not be shared. Usernames, Passwords and Business User IDs should not be guessable or predictable to employees or to anyone else.

Internet Banking and Mobile Banking passwords can be changed at any time and should be changed immediately if you suspect that someone else may know your password, or if an individual is no longer authorized to access your account(s).

Miscellaneous Fees and Charges

HVCU charges fees for certain transactions, requests and optional services. Refer to the Business Fee Schedule for any applicable fees. You may access our Business Fee Schedule at <https://www.hvcu.org/Business/Resources/Fee-Schedule>. Fees are subject to change.

THIS ENDS THE PROVISIONS THAT APPLY ONLY TO BUSINESS ACCOUNTS.

Acceptable Use of Services

You agree that you are independently responsible for complying with all applicable laws in all of your activities related to your use of the Internet Banking and Mobile Banking services, regardless of the purpose of the use. While the Internet Banking and Mobile Banking services might allow you to perform certain financial functions, it is your responsibility to comply with all applicable U.S. laws and regulations.

Indemnification

You acknowledge and agree that you are personally responsible for your conduct and the conduct of your authorized users, employees, agents, independent contractors, Authorized Representative and Signers and Shared Users, as applicable, while using the HVCU website, mobile app, and Internet Banking and Mobile Banking services. You agree to indemnify, hold harmless and defend HVCU and its affiliates and each of our and their shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, and independent contractors from and against any claims, causes of action, liability, loss, damage or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses) resulting from or arising out of or in connection your breach of this Agreement, your use of HVCU's website or mobile app, and your use of the Internet Banking or Mobile Banking services.

Other Agreements

In addition to this Agreement, you agree to be bound by and comply with all terms and conditions applicable to your account (s) with Hudson Valley Credit Union, including, without limitation, as described in your Truth in Savings Disclosure & Account Agreement, and Electronic Fund Transfers Disclosure & Account Agreement, the prior receipt of which you acknowledge.

Enforcement

Please refer to "In Case of Errors to Questions about Your Electronic Transfers" in the Electronic Fund Transfers Disclosure and Agreement <https://www.hvcu.org/Personal/Resources/Account-Disclosures> to report an error or submit a question about an electronic fund transfer. If we determine an error occurred, we will correct it as stated in that policy. If we determine that no error occurred, you agree to be liable to HVCU for any liability, loss, or expense, including, but not limited to, return of any credit provisionally posted to your account during our investigation, as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of the dispute involving your accounts or the services. You authorize HVCU to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce the Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collections actions, if applicable.

Severability

If any term of this Agreement is to any extent invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced, such term shall be excluded to the extent of any such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability; all other terms hereof shall remain in full force and effect.

Right to Terminate Agreement

You are responsible for complying with all terms of this Agreement and with the terms of the agreement(s) governing the account(s) which you access using Internet Banking and Mobile Banking services. HVCU reserves the right to terminate this Agreement and your Internet Banking and/or Mobile Banking privileges under this Agreement, in whole or in part, at any time, or if you do not pay any fee required by this Agreement when due, or if you do not comply with the agreement(s) governing your accounts, or your accounts are not maintained in good standing.

No Waiver

HVCU shall not be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies it may have under this Agreement unless such waiver is in writing and signed by an authorized representative. Our delay or omission in exercising any rights or remedies shall not operate as a waiver of such rights or remedies, and our waiver on any given occasion or under any circumstances shall not be construed as a bar to our waiver of any rights or remedies in the future.

Assignment

You shall not assign, transfer or delegate any of your rights or obligations under this Agreement without our prior written consent, which we may withhold in our sole discretion. We may at any time assign, transfer or delegate any or all of our rights or obligations under this Agreement to any party without your consent.
